Vertex Honored by The Philadelphia Inquirer As A Top Workplace for Sixth Consecutive Year

KING OF PRUSSIA, PA – July 6, 2020 – Vertex, Inc. (NASDAQ:VERX) (“Vertex” or the “Company”), a leading provider of tax technology and services, announced it has been named a 2020 Top Workplace by The Philadelphia Inquirer for the sixth year in a row.

“The foundation of our business is our culture, which is deeply rooted in our values. They are not just words on paper – we hold ourselves accountable to live them each and every day,” said David DeStefano, president and CEO of Vertex. “This award is a testament to our employees who are making their mark and embodying our values in service to our customers and fellow employees—we are all so pleased to be honored as a Top Workplace for another year.”

Vertex received this recognition in the large company category and is one of only 135 companies honored this year. Vertex employees gave the company high marks for pay and benefits, work flexibility and professional growth opportunities.

“For more than a decade, the Top Workplaces award has helped organizations stand out among their competitors to attract talent,” said Eric Rubino, CEO of Energage. “This differentiation is more important than ever in today’s tight labor market. No longer is recognition simply a much-deserved cause for celebration, but it’s fast becoming mission-critical for recruitment and retention.”

The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution and connection, just to name a few.
